

Takida, The Loneliest Hour

Lay it on me
When you can't breathe
Lay it on me now
It will be alright

Angst and no belief
Take it out on me
Aim for me now
It will all be alright

So close to be losing everything
Just because of tonight

Please come back and be my baby

You wanna feel it again?
The loneliest hour
No, you wanna feel it again?

Say something
Enlighten me
Say something now
I want to be there in time

Shake the mirror
Just to see a different side of you
It's okay if you cry

Don't let this be a curse that fire brings
We're still very much alive

Please come back and be my baby

You wanna feel it again?
The loneliest hour
No, you wanna feel it again?

Go on and hit me love and kick me
It won't affect me while I'm ahead
You wanna feel it again?
The loneliest hour
You wanna feel it again?

You can't explain the noise in your head

You wanna feel it again?
The loneliest hour
No, you wanna feel it again?

Go on and hit me love and kick me
It won't affect me while I'm ahead
You wanna feel it again?
The loneliest hour
You wanna feel it again?
