

Taking Back Sunday, Cut me up Jenny

Oh...

On a borrowed mattress you were stopping time

I've been watching you

I've been watching you

For hours and hours before you knew, ooh

You are the satin noose

I've been saving up to buy you.

You are the polished-pearl grips of your fathers .45,

Give me all those gory details,

Do tell, do tell.

So cut me up, Jenny,

Well, cut me up gently

I took full advantage of

Being taken full advantage of

Yeah, I took what I could get

And eventually it took the place of love

The match-makers in heaven,

Oh, they've got a one-track mind

So in our case, I don't think they mind

Alright...

Finger prints, a perfect match

And no you didn't have to leave the way you did

I've been watching you

I've been watching you

Most times you never knew.

You are a Sunday afternoon

With nothing to do

You are Manhattan in June

As the population's wearing next to nothing.

So cut me up, Jenny

Well, cut me up gently.

I took full advantage of

Being taken full advantage of

Yeah, I took what I could get

And eventually it took the place of love

The match-makers in heaven,

Oh, they got a one-track mind

So in our case, I don't think they mind

No in our case, I don't think they mind

So cut me up, Jenny

Well, cut me up gently

Yeah...

Talking about our prayer

Is it gonna make me swear?

Yeah, move on, right on

Give me all those gory details,

Do tell, do tell.

So cut me up, Jenny,

Well, cut me up gently.

I took full advantage of

Being taken full advantage of

Yeah, I took what I could get

And eventually it took the place of love

The match-makers in heaven,

Oh, they've got a one-track mind

So in our case, I don't think they mind

So cut me up, Jenny

(Cut me up Jenny)

Cut me up gently

(Cut me up gently)

So cut me up, Jenny

(Cut me up Jenny)

Well, cut me up gently

(Cut me up gently)

So cut me up, Jenny
(Cut me up, Jenny)
Cut me up, Jenny
(Cut me up, Jenny)
Well, cut me up gently
(Cut me up gently)
Cut me up, Jenny
Cut me up gently
