

Taking Back Sunday, Great Romances Of The 20

[Talking: (From the demo version of this song)]

A beautiful girl can make you dizzy Like you've been drinking jack and coke all morning
She can make u feel high Full a single greatest commodity known to man Promise promise of a better day Promise of a greater hope Promise of a new tomorrow
This particular aura can be found in the gait of a beautiful girl
In her smile & in her soul & the way she makes every rotten little thing about life seem lik

September never stays this cold where I come from
And you know
Im not one for complaining,
But I love the way you'd roll excuses off the tip of your tongue as I slowly fall apart (slowly, quietly, slowly) fall apart

This wont mean a thing come tomorrow and thats exactly how Ill make it seem Cause I'm still not sleeping, thinking Ive crawled home from worse than this

So please, please (please) Im running out of sympathy (I'm running out of sympathy!) and I never said Id take this I never said I'd take this lying down

She says
"come on, come on, lets just get this over with
She says
"come on, come on, lets just get this over with (I never said Id take this lying down, let's just get this over with, and I've crawled home from worse than this)
She says
"come on, come on, lets just get this over with
She says
"come on, come on.."

You always come close but this never comes easy,
I still know everything
You always come close but you never come easy,
I still know everything
This always comes close but you never come easy,
I still know everything
You always come so close...
I still know everything, I still know everything, I still know...

You always come close but this never comes easy
You always come close but you never come easy
You're coming in... you're coming close

I never said I'd take this lying down
I never said I'd take this lying down
I never said I'd take this lying down but I've crawled home from worse than this

If it's not keeping you up nights then whats the point
then whats the point
then whats the point
then whats the point

I'm in your room now is this turning you on am I turning you on?

I'm in your room
are you turned on?

I'm on the corner of your bed,
I'm thinking maybe,
are you turned on,
are you turned on?
