

Talisman, Tears In The Sky

World is turnin' but society's standing still Vows of Eden have burned thru compassions' will

Now we're only human or so they say
Just another deformed analogy
Further from what we all thought was near
Now the clouds r cryin'

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again
No sun 2morrow
Tears from the sky r rainin'
We're near the end

Peace, love & joy, expressions oblivious
Talk is cheap in the words that r dangerous

Now we're dumb and blind & so misunderstood
Ignorance dims our, our dare 2 recover
No more faith in life, no more surprise
If we never ever cease the cryin'

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again
No sun 2morrow
Tears from the sky r rainin'
We're near the end

Now we're only human or so they say
Just another deformed analogy
Further from what we all thought was near
Now the clouds r cryin'

Can you hear the cryin'?

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again
No sun 2morrow
Tears from the sky r rainin'
We're near the end

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again
Lost in the sorrow
Tears from the sky r rainin'
We're near the end

Fallin', fallin' down
Tears r fallin'...
