Tamar, Money Can't Buy You Love

Oh, yeah

Oh...oh...oh...oh...

Its two nights, seven days

Seven nights for the very first time we met

I felt scared, a first kiss

And I remember it just like it was yesterday

And boy, you know that I care for you

But weve got to slow it down

Cause once you fall out of love

You dont wanna rush back into it

And once you feel pain, darlin

You dont wanna rush back into it once again

Once again, once again

Hoo...ooh...yeah

You whisper things in my ear

You know that every single woman in the world likes to hear

Those three words, how I wish

That you would be the man that I would spend my life with

And boy, as much as I care for you

Weve got to slow it down, slow it down

Cause once you fall out of love

You dont wanna rush back into it

And once you feel pain, darlin

You dont wanna rush back into it once again

Once again, once again

Ive been in love a long time ago

And Ive been through pain with this man from my past

And you say that youll never hurt me, so you say

Could this be a night of fear

Or could this be a fantasy

Please let me know, Lord

Oh, just once

You gotta let me know, know

One time, oh, one time

Gotta let me know

I glad you know

Oh...oh...

Once you fall out of love

You dont wanna rush back into it

Once you feel pain

You dont wanna rush back into it

Once you fall out of love

You dont wanna rush back into it

Once you feel pain

You dont wanna rush back into it

Please let me know, Lord

Just once

III sit beside you, sit beside you

Once

Cause I dont wanna be hurt once again
