

Tamia, If I Were You

I look in the mirror with you in my arms and I see a reflection of a smile that says you believe in love and just for a moment I drifted away but I couldn't stay darlin' a hint of love a bitter fear I'm trying to say

If I were you I wouldn't be here
If I were you I would stay right where you are I wouldn't come near this broken heart just turn around and leave here and find someone that won't hurt you make sure that she still believes in love cuz I think my heart has given up
If I were you I wouldn't be here

I'm tryin' to protect you from the lies that your heart tells even though it says that it wants me all I see is pain and misery seasons may change but I can't forget the days of old my heart ached when he walked away said I'd never love again

If I were you I wouldn't be here
If I were you I would stay right where you are
I wouldn't come near this broken heart
just turn around and leave here
and find someone that won't hurt you
make sure that she still believes in love
cuz I think my heart has given up
If I were you I wouldn't be here

Days go by and I feel that you could make me happy Time goes on and I feel that love is at my door and though I tell myself that you're the one who said those words before But it hurts too much
I can't trust in love again
AGAIN

If I were you I wouldn't be here
If I were you I would stay right where you are
I wouldn't come near this broken heart
just turn around and leave here
and find someone that won't hurt you
make sure that she still believes in love cuz my heart has given up
If I were you I wouldn't be here

If I were you I wouldn't be here
If I were you I would stay right where you are
I wouldn't come near this broken heart
just turn around and leave here
and find someone that won't hurt you make sure that she
make sure that she still believes in love
cuz my heart has given up

If I were you I wouldn't be here