

Tamia, Still ( Revised)

Usually when two people lock together for a long time things seem to change its been said that nothing good last forever but this love gets better everyday we get all excited inside everytime that we get alone he still got love in his eyes and i still got love in my soul

(chorus)

still feels like the first time that we met that i kissed and i told you i loved you we still run around like teenagers even though we're grown and married with kids and we still talk on the phone for hours when i'm away we're still restless he sends me flowers every other day question everybody asks is how i make it last i tell them i still, he still, we still now i still smile in the morning when i realize im still in his arms we know everthing about each other but we still keep holding on oh yeah we're never gonna break up we'll be always there to make up as long as we stick together we'll climb higher im gonna ride with him to the wire our love is never gonna end we on fire

(chorus)

we go through problems just like everybody else but i really dont mind ( i dont mind cuz it makes us keep it fresh) now its sadder than( sadder than an argument, its the thought we may have never been) he is my lover, my baby's father, my life time partner and my friend still the man of my dreams he's still, still the man for me and im still in love with him so deeply i think i'll sing it again he's still, still the man of my dreams
he's still, still the man for me and i'm still in love with him deep, deeply

(chorus)

repeat
fades out
