

Tammy Trent, Your Love Pursues

It's me again
I know you know
I wandered off but I've nowhere left to go
So many times
Why do You forgive
And take me back no matter what my story is
Yes, I know, You love me so
What can I say

I wanna love this true
I wanna run to You
Tell me, how can a heart refuse
I wonder what You see
That You would run to me
Lord, I love that Your love pursues

Through ups and downs
And in-betweens
I fall away more than I am following
If I were You
I'd have given up
But You chase me down with Your unrelenting love
Yes, I know, You love me so
What can I do

I hear You here, say
"Have no fear
Don't be afraid"
Turn me around
I'll turn around
I won't turn away
