

Tammy Wynette, Homecoming

There's gonna be a homecoming there's gonna be a lotta good times from now on
It's been a long time coming too long coming
And I just can't wait to get him all alone then I'll tell my baby welcome home
Kids get up and wash your faces comb your hair put on your Sunday smile
Cause late last night I talked to your daddy
And he's gonna be drivin' up in a little while
Let's all be sure make him welcome don't forget to make him feel at home
Love him all you can till after dinner cause mama's gonna love him all night long
There's gonna be a homecoming there's gonna be a lotta good times from now on
It's been a long time coming too long coming
It should be hard to break up but it's gonna feel good to make up
And I just can't wait to get him all alone then I'll tell my baby welcome home
There's gonna be a homecoming
