Tammy Wynette, Number One

NUMBER ONE WITH GEORGE JONES WRITER JERRY CHESNUT

I don't wanna see no lips of all the lips you've ever kissed I just wanna be your No 1

I don't need no one to warm me I don't care who came before me I just wanna be your No 1

All that happened yesterday is now a part of history

Let me be your destiny let's do what's right for you and me

I don't wanna try and undo all the wrong somebody done you I just wanna be your No 1

My whole world revolves around you life began the day I found you I just wanna be your No 1

Let's not spend no time discussin' anything that don't mean nothin' I just wanna be your No 1

Take me in your arms turn out the light lock the door And I won't even wonder if somebody had a key before I don't wanna solve no mist'ry yesterday belongs to hist'ry I just wanna be your No 1 No 1 I just wanna be your No 1 I just wanna be your No 1
