

Tanita Tikaram, Love Is Just A Word

Do you feel
Love is just a word to say sometimes
Do you feel
Love is just a word to say sometimes
Do you feel
Love is just a word to say sometimes
Do you feel
Love is just a word to say

We are so far from knowing
I feel so far
All my life I've been running
From these things that I've never done
All my life I've been running
From the things that I've never done
Still a fighter keeps the dream alive
If I wasn't this close to heaven
I'd be letting down a sigh

Lord knows I'll find a way
Through the sleepless city's weary face
Holding you

Do you feel love is just a word I say sometimes
Do you feel love is just a word I say
For I feel so far from knowing
I feel so far from knowing
I feel so far from knowing
I feel so far

All my life I've been running
From these things that I've never done
All my life I've been running
To keep me from home
