

Tanita Tikaram, My Love Tonight

And I
Go dancing for a little
Have never felt so little
Fear the stars in their eyes
You feel them lie
So close
You never dare to breathe
You never dare the stars
In their eyes
Their eyes

Am I?
Supposed to even say
Suppose I even say
I see they're lovers eyes
Their love - tonight

So loose
It never seemed so much
It never seemed so
So why?
So why?
My love tonight

And I -
Will never need this much
Will never see the moon so starry eyed
My love tonight
My love and I
My love and I
