

Tanya Tucker, Cowboy Lovin' Night

Their tuning those twin Texas fiddles,
It'll soon be holding time,
I'm such a easy mood,
It's close to 4/4 time.
All alone at a table for two,
Just me, and the candle light.
Shuffle with me Huston stranger,
It's a cowboy lovin' night.
My last good time was in Dallas,
We danced, every song.
We promised each other forever,
Forever didn't last that long.
The fated love is playing,
It could be the time is right.
Shuffle with me Huston stranger,
It's a cowboy lovin' night.
It's been so long since Dallas,
Many lonely nights, have come and gone.
It may not last but a dance or two,
But it might last all night long.
The fated love is playing,
It could be the time is right.
Shuffle with me Huston stranger,
It's a cowboy lovin' night.
The fated love is playing,
It could be the time is right.
Shuffle with me Huston stranger,
It's a cowboy lovin' night.
