Tanya Tucker, Two Sparrows In A Hurricane

(Mark Alan Springer)

She's fifteen and he's barely driving a car

She's got his ring and he's got the keys to her heart

It's just matter of time

They'll spread their wings and fly

Like two sparrows in a hurricane

Trying to find their way

With a head full of dreams

And faith that can move anything

They've heard it's all uphill

But all they know is how they feel

The world says they'll never make it, love says they will

There's a baby crying and one more on the way

There's a wolf at the door with a big stack of bills

They can't pay

The clouds are dark and the wind is high

But they can see the other side

Like two sparrows in a hurricane

Trying to find their way

With a head full of dreams

And faith that can move anything

They've heard it's all uphill

But all they know is how they feel

The world says they'll never make it, love says they will

She's eighty-three and he's barely driving a car

She's got his ring and he's got the key to her heart

It's just a matter of time

They'll spread their wings and fly

Like two sparrows in a hurricane

Trying to find their way

With a head full of dreams

And faith that can move anything

They've heard it's all uphill

But all they know is how they feel

The world says they'll never make it, love says they will
