

Tanya Tucker, You Just Watch Me

(Rick Giles/Bob Regan)

You just watch me, baby
One of these breathless nights
I'm gonna steal your heart
And make you mine
You're gonna say you want me
Beg me to never leave
If you don't think so
Then you just watch me
When you see me comin'
Ain't no use runnin' 'cause
I'll be the dream that haunts you
And when the dawn's upon you
I'll be the only light you'll see
You just watch me
You just watch me, baby
I'm the moon above
A blanket of night comin' down
To wrap you up
Open up your window
Breathe the cool night air
The winds of love
Are everywhere
When you see me comin'
Ain't no use runnin' 'cause
I'll be the dream that haunts you
And when the dawn's upon you
I'll be the only light you'll see
You just watch me
