

Tapes 'N Tapes, Headshock

I was hitting and sowing the tide
For waiting until you were mine
Time for hiding you up then holding me down
Just stallin'

Now when you go i must move on
For the heads and the souls and their songs
It's not what you will breath
But it's what you believe I'll be aching and stating this long

Headshock
Right out
Your needs
I will never never never Leave out
so still
Your heart
I will never never never never Stop

Now when trees they blow
the leaves let go
From aging troughs to highland roads
They're up and round and crawling out of shading

What hides in rowing tones
It has shook me to my bones
The cotton rope
has brought me out from hiding

Headshock
Your knees
I will never never never Leave out
Your mind
So Still
I will never never never never never never never Stop
