

Tapping The Vein, Again

I am wearing this weight Again
It cuts like it did then It's consuming all my thoughts and swallowing me Again

And what you see is what's left of me but I'm here
I didn't think I'd scare very easily but I fear this thing

It is wearing me out and thin
Paralyzing me Again
It was vicious all the way here
I am barely alive

I wish you love
With anyone else but me
I wish you love with anyone

And all I can do I will do for you
If I'm here
I promise you I'll remember you
While I'm here

I wish you love Again
I am surrendering me
Surrendering mine
