

Tara MacLean, For You

You are all I see sweet obsession in my soul
Fill each moment with your voice
Breathe your beauty into me

Would I die for you No I live for you
You know I do You know I do

You are all I know
Your mouth is all I taste
My breast between your lips
My tongue upon your waist

Would I die for you I live for you
You know I do You know I do

And though you never will be mine
I will iever to know that you have touched me
Once upon a time

You are all I am

And everything I feel
Your words are all I understand
But you're not real

Would I die for you I live for you
You know I do You know
I do
I do
