

Tara MacLean, Jericho

March around
Jericho loved the music and fell into your arms breathless

Heard a sound
Shut my eyes so tight
Heard the wisper of a storm coming

Oh, funny how
I spent this time waiting around
It's a lie
Everything you felt until now

Saw her dancing
The floor gave way
Opened its mouth
To say her name

Saw her falling
Cast away
She learned to fly one day

Oh, funny how
I spent this tima on the ground
It's a lie
Everything you felt until now

Same place i've always been
I'm just lost on this roads again
Just as i got near the end
I keep falling in the holes you left in me

Oh, funny how
I spent this time lashing out
It's a lie
Everything you felt until now
