

Taraka, In The Rain

Looking back at all that I had
Makes me feel so empty and sad
My best friend and I are home
One blow and day will go

Sitting here in the cottony room
All is different even demon
Only pictures on the walls tell me
Where I belong

In The Rain
I will walk thousand miles
My own place I will find

In The Rain
I will walk thousand miles
My own place I will find

I'm feeling lost in the crowd
Sleepless night and I'm losing my minds
I don't fit in your mode
But don't, don't take my hope

In The Rain
I will walk thousand miles
My own place I will find

In my hard day, I carry a single memory that shine like SUN in the sky
Storm doesn't last forever
I know that better days awake me now

In The Rain
I will walk thousand miles
My own place I will find

In The Rain
I'll keep moving forward
My heard is just a guide I need
I will walk
