

Taraxacum, If I Had Known

[Music: F. Wolf, T. Exxel - Words: R. Mythisian]

If I had known, that today I'd be alone
Not having you here by my side
Now it's been so long, that I've held you in my arms
I'm sorry that I couldn't say goodbye

If I had Known, that you would be gone, this is so strong!
I pray that one day I will see you again
And tell you all the things that I didn't say
Now you're gone, it burns inside of me
All our dreams gone with the wind, along with your smile

I lie awake at night in our empty bed
Memories of our love in my head
The tears they fall like rain, flowing to the sea
They fill me inside, they're drowning me

If I had know, that today you'd be gone, had I know...
I miss you so much, it's such an empty space
I just can't replace with someone else
Now you're gone, it burns inside of me
All our dreams gone with the wind

Gone!

All I have are memories, I wouldn't trade for anything
I believe in love surviving death into eternity
I believe you're some place better
I feel your presence all around me...

If I had know, that today I'd be alone, had I know...
If I had know
