

Tarkan, Gulumse Kaderine (English) is it ever worth it? don't fall out with your dreams over nothing believe me - he/she won't get away with it let her/him go, don't be sad life is on the side of those who love -don't forget, smile at your fate

burn all the photographs everything that belongs to her/him take all your hopes into your arms tonight forget that unreasonable person before the new day is born it was fate that brought you together and fate that now separates you he/she didn't believe in love wipe away your tears don't ever cry he/she played with your heart life protects those who love won't throw them in fire my rose, it couldn't have the heart to hurt you
