

Tarot, Shadows In My Heart

Please don't, don't hurt me this way
I can't go on
If there's nothing but yesterday
Please lord, I'm pleading on my knees
I'd search the skies for her
I'd cross the seven seas
I am breaking apart
The darkness spreads
From the shadow of my heart
There was no reason
No reason for us to depart
The mold is black
Like the shadow in my heart
So cold is this solitary disgrace
Am I losing my mind
The despair of my face
My heart behind a weeping door
Carries the wounds of love
Open, bleeding and sore
From the darkness
I hear your song twisting my mind
Laying me into the deepest grave
Poison so kind
I will be by your side
Out of the time stream
I'll hold the light
That shows the way
To the endless dream
