

Tatu, Don

You dont regret
For your embraces
Time will forget
Phrases and faces
No more saying words
No more crying tears
All that was before
Is no longer here
No more singing songs
Silent lips are dry
All that was before
Slowly passing by
No more saying words
No more crying tears
All that was before
Is no longer here
No more singing songs
Just for you and I
Silent nights are long
Broken hearts are dry
No turning back
No cancellation
Cats in the bag
Trains at the station
No more saying words
No more crying tears
All that was before
Is no longer here
No more singing songs
Silent lips are dry
All that was before
Slowly passing by
No more saying words
No more crying tears
All that was before
Is no longer here
No more singing songs
Just for you and I
Silent nights are long
Broken hearts are dry
