

Tatu, Little squirrel

And you said that it would be easy
That we needed it, that we're like grown-ups
Snaps and laces, getting to tears
Accidental points, it's all very serious
Because...

It's hard to be a boy when you're a girl
It's hard to be a girl when you're a boy
And... and maybe I should be a little squirrel?
And... and maybe you should be a little hare?
And what if we ran away and left no traces?
And didn't press the space buttons - the last one won't hide?
We're spread like paints by the stupid questions
We'll take off our disguise and become grown-ups
But...

It's hard to be a boy when you're a girl
It's hard to be a girl when you're a boy
And... and maybe I should be a little squirrel?
And... and maybe you should be a little hare?
