

Tears Of Mankind, For One

The wind caress a voice of trees
They sing for you, for one
Green leaves - shadows of a wood
Are turned in dance for you, for one

In dark I go to you
In my labyrinth I go through
Pain and sufferings of the mutilated soul
I close eyes and I fall

The sky will wash the ground a rain
It will be spilled for you, for one
White clouds with grief will look
As I suffer on you, on one

In dark I go to you
In my labyrinth I go through
Pain and sufferings of the mutilated soul
I close eyes also I fall

Beautiful eyes look at me
Here I for you, for one
Silently cover me black dream
I die for you, for one
