

Teddy Failure, 1000 Tears

I'm doing better now
Bad days got good somehow
Yeah it's alright
You made it good somehow
And didn't even try
Now I'm okay
Kick it 7-11 we sit on your bed and we talk about all of your problems
You call a friend of a friend and I try to pretend that it isn't a problem
That we share a muffin and drink too much coffee 'cause we ain't got nothing to do
I think I'm falling but I think that you don't have a clue

It's a good day here in the city of a thousand tears
There's just nowhere else I'd rather be
She got a good night sleep in the city of a thousand dreams
There's just nowhere else I'd rather be

If there's a God above
Before got up on us
And that's okay
Afraid that you only call me when there's something you need from me
I'll be there 7-11 I couldn't forget it 'cause I ain't got nothing to lose
Probably better if I could just let her walk away but that I can't do
When I said I love you you said that you value our friendship too much and that you'd never risk it
There's no going back
I said it I said it I'll never regret it
I love you

It's a good day here in the city of a thousand tears
There's just nowhere else I'd rather be
She got a good night sleep in the city of a thousand dreams
There's just nowhere else I'd rather be

Lalalalalala, lalalalalalalalala, lalala
Lalalalalala, lalalalalalalalala, lalala

We haven't talked since then
You stole my heart and ran
Left me in the city of a thousand tears
