

Teddy Geiger, I'm So Bitter

Minutes turn into hours and hours lead into days it's been years
since the trouble you left me
And I wanna say
I'm so bitter
but i've seen better days
I'm so bitter
Is it the better man that always walks away no phone call or even a letter no words to cause me any pain it's been years now since anything could hurt me Throught this life I'll fake my way
I'm so bitter
but i've seen better days
I'm so bitter
is it the better man that always walks away
watch me walk away
I'm so bitter
Watch me walk away
I'm so bitter
Watch me walk away
