

Teen Idols, Comin' Down

I just had to get away this morning
To keep you off my mind
Your memory haunts me without warning
And I need a place to hide
And a little help to just unwind

I want it, 'cause I'm comin' down
I was touchin' a place where I wanna stay
I need it, 'cause I'm comin' down
Can't face the fact that you've gone away
Gotta have it, 'cause I'm comin' down
I can't lose the way that I feel inside

I'll just pretend that you're still with me
To help me ease the pain
I'll still deny it until I'm fifty
Or until I go insane
From a drug contorted brain
