

Teenage Fanclub, December

I'll take this chance to tell my friends what I'm thinking of.
On second thought I'll think some more and tell you later on.
She don't even care but I would die for her love.
My mind is full of several things resembling a thought.
I'll take this chance to tell my friends what I'm thinking of.
She don't even care but I would die for her love.
I've had this plan for many years but now I can't remember.
I wanted to assassinate December...
I wanted to assassinate December.
