

Tegan & Sara, Man With Two Brains (The Rental

Been thinkin' bout the conversations, our situation;
My frustration, leading to your suffocation;
Feel uptight and my thoughts deranged and insane,
Like The Man With Two Brains.

So, I forgot the neurotic, got into the psychotic,
All those words haven't heard, you're kind of erotic-
Got no guilt, got no mind, got no reason, got no time,
I'm high on the sly.

(It will be OK)

I don't know about that,

(It's the American way)

Yeah, maybe that's where it's at,

(You were raised that way)

The Europeans say.

(The Man With Two Brains)

Well then The Man With Two Brains says "It's a science

I've got one for my actions, one for my conscience,

Yeah, one's for the sex and the other's for the consequence"

Then The Girl With One Brain says "You make no sense,

You make no sense."

Then, the anti-cruise takes form in the frame of a young woman,

From a passionate scheme to a sterile queen,

I put a bottle of Ed's Red in my head, a little dead,

And surprised when you said:

(It will be OK)

I don't know about that,

(It's the American way)

Yeah, maybe that's where it's at,

(You were raised that way)

The Europeans say.

(The Man With Two Brains)

Well then The Man With Two Brains says "It's a science

I've got one for my actions, one for my conscience

Yeah, one's for the sex and the other's for the consequence"

Then The Girl With One Brain says "You make no sense,

You make no sense"

(it's cool, cool)

Well The Girl With One Brain says "It's not a science,

You can't have one for your actions and one for the consequence

It's all about sex, so what's the difference?"

Then, The Man With Two Brains says "You make no sense"
