

Tegan & Sara, Morning Comes

Don't panic
My bags are staying unpacked
And don't worry
I've got nowhere else
To be

When morning comes
Will you still be there?
When the morning comes
Will I still be here?

And don't cry, there's nothing
To worry
About
And don't whine
We've all heard about it
Before
And don't go looking
For mistakes
In me
I don't think I
Can take anymore

When the morning comes
Will you still be here?
When the morning comes
Will I still be here?
When the morning comes
Will you still be here?
When the morning comes
Will I still be here?
