

Television Personalities, None Of This Will Matter

None of this will matter when you're dead
None of this will matter when you're dead

None of this will matter when you're dead

None of this will matter when you're dead
None of this will matter when you're dead

None of this will matter when you're dead
None of this will matter when you're dead

Night time brings the sadness
My souvenirs of madness

None of this will matter when you're dead
None of this will matter when you're dead

None of this will matter when you're dead
None of this will matter when you're dead

Digging a hole so I can hide
A box of tears that I won't pride

My souvenirs of madness
None of this will matter when you're dead

None of this will matter when you're dead
None of this will matter when you're dead

When you're dead
When you're dead
Lay the blanket right up over your head
None of this will matter when you're dead
