

Tellers, I Lie

I told you I was a cosmonaut
And I lived out in St. Petersburg,
But all I do is dreamin'
All I do is dreamin'

I told you I got a really fast car
I get it for thanksgiving
But all I do is walkin'
All I do is walkin'

And I lie,
I lie for your eyes
And I lie for your smile.
I lie, I lie for your eyes
And I lie for your smile.

I told you I lived so many things,
From Paris to London,
From Brussels to Beijing,
But all I do is reading,
All I do is reading.

I told you I sailed the Seven Seas
on a ship named Tangerine,
But all I do is swimming,
All I do is swimming.

And I lie,
I lie for your eyes
And I lie for your smile.
I lie, I lie for your eyes
And I lie for your smile.

I told you one day, in your arms
On your cold lips that 'I love you'
And it's the only thing that's true,
It's the only thing that's true.

I lie, I lie for your eyes
And I lie for your smile.
I lie, I lie for your eyes
And I lie for your smile.
