Yeh (5 times)

Now I know why
The man on the moon
Won't show his face
I wouldn't if it was blue
Go run and hide
Think it better you do
Play no hide-n-seek, peak-a-boo

If it wasn't for you
If it wasn't for me
Where in the world
Where in the world would this world be

Why do we lie
till our faces turn blue
how can i rely
Countin' on you
Now I don't mind
Long as it's true
Kick out the old in with the new

It wasn't workin for me
It wasn't workin for you
So how in the world
Can we say to anyone what the world needs
One more day could be all it takes
To burn this d*** place to the ground
Down to the sea
(one more change)
Gonna rip the entire face
Off o' the earth and split the sea
(Cept for you and me)

Why don't we cry
Instead we laugh in the face
How can we deny
we're destroying this place
Now, I'm not fine, We're F##ked

If it wasn't for trust
Peace and harmony
If it wasn't for love
Tell me where in the world
Would this world be

One more day
We may rip this entire place
Off of the earth and split the seams
Bustin' in two
(One more change)
You're gonna take each entire race
Turn it all around and spli the seams

If it wasn't for land
If it wasn't for sea
Or the trees or the ocean
Or the aire we breathe
If it wasn't for life and all of us
Now tell me where in the world
Would this world be
Yeah

One more day
Could be all it takes
Down to the sea
(One more change)
Gonna take each entire race
Turn it all around and split the seams
'Cept for you and me
(One more day)
May rip this entire place
Off of the earth and split the seams
(Bustin' in two)
One of these days
Just watch and see
Earth mother's gonna show it's face
And that's the end of you and me
