

Temper, Erase

No!
Take from the man who is blind
But can see your selfishness in your plans
Your disguise to break him down

Find another soul
'Cause this one screams

I can't
I will never change
You want me to become your slave
I won't entertain
You I will erase

Stop look around
Now the fear has gained a cause
You blame your mistakes on the others
You live in vain

Find another soul
'Cause this one screams

I can't
I will never change
You want me to become your slave
I won't entertain
You I will erase

Time will confirm what you took from me
I will bring it back full force

Cast your stone at the sounds
My roof won't fall
I sat in my chair while you chased me
You hit the wall

I can't
I will never change
You want me to become your slave
I won't entertain
You I will erase

Oh, yeah
I will never change
You want me to become your slave
I won't entertain
You I will erase
Erase
