

Temper, Stop The Cycle

Stop the cycle now

I sit and pray for reason
In the search for piece of mind
All my bad decisions
Took the life that I must find

Try to live the store
Just can't break the line
Want to cut the rope
Take it back

Stop the cycle now
I'm falling down
Can't find my way back
Of this broken line
The fear inside
Nowhere left to run

Now my future hunts me
Because my past has left me down
Didn't see the warnings
I was tapped to what was said

Can't open my eyes
I can't get my pride
Want to intercept
Wait a minute

Stop the cycle now
I'm falling down
Can't find my way back
Of this broken line
The fear inside
There's nowhere left to run
Yeah

Try
Try to life (Try)
Try to life the store (Try)
Just can't break a line (Try)
Want to cut the rope (Try)
Take it back

Stop the cycle now
I'm falling down
Can't find my way back
Of this broken line
The fear inside

Nowhere left to run, run
There's nowhere left to run, run
