

Tems, Crazy Tings

All you do is lie and lie and lie
All you do is try and try and try
You don't even know the kind of things
But you try to tell me all these things

Give me some time, I need peace
I'mma need space some days
And I'm just tryna do my thing
And I'm just tryna get my way

So you need someone to deceive
And you're trying to think that I'm the one for you
But don't you see
You're not everything
And I know you're not, the one for me

Crazy things are happening
Crazy things are happening
If you need somebody craze
You fit chop somebody's craze

Crazy things are happening
Crazy things are happening
If you need somebody craze
You fit chop somebody's craze

Try, try, try
I try try
I just wan' turn my back tonight, tonight
So I'll make it seem, make it seem
I just want to turn my back tonight

Oooh you know me well well well, well well well
And you try to tell tell tell, tell tell tell
Oooh you try to make my run insane
But you know that you know
I'm not the same
I just think I can do better

Crazy things are happening
Crazy things are happening
If you need somebody craze
You fit chop somebody's craze

Crazy things are happening
Crazy things are happening
If you need somebody craze
You fit chop somebody's craze
