

Ten Shekel Shirt, House Of Memories

You're my hero little girl
You always save the day with your smile
You know I'm in love
With the one behind those pretty eyes

chorus

I will build for all time
A house of memories just for you and I
There you'll find rooms inside
Filled with laughter, joy
And your daddy's pride
Around the table and down the hall
We'll chase each other
Till the laughter makes us fall
In the evening we'll lay our heads down
And thank God for these memories

You're my angel
Sending messages of love
You're my future
A part of me that carries on
