

Tenth Avenue North, Let It Go

I've been holding on so tight
Look at these knuckles they've gone white
I'm fighting for who I want to be
I'm just trying to find security

You say let it go, You say let it go
You say life is waiting for the ones who lose control
You say You will be everything I need
You say if I lose my life it's then I'll find my soul
You say let it go

Well it's hard enough to hear
Harder still to move beyond this fear
We know there's nothing I can bring
So tell me, what do You want from me?

You say let it go, You say let it go
You say life is waiting for the ones who lose control
You say You will be everything I need
You say if I lose my life it's then I'll find my soul
You say let it go
You say let it go

What do I love?
What do I hate?
What will I lose?
What will I gain?
How do I save my soul?

What if I bend?
What if I break?
What will it cost?
What will it take for You to save my soul?

You say let it go, You say let it go
You say life is waiting for the ones who lose control
You say You will be everything I need
You say if I lose my life it's then I'll find my soul

You say let it go, You say let it go
You say life is waiting for the ones who lose control
You say You will be everything I need
You say if I lose my life it's then I'll find my soul
You say let it go
You say let it go
