

Tera and Player N Skillz, Scared (feat. Amanda V

Never knew
I could feel in this way
All the sides look the other way
Always knew something was wring
I was missing the love before

I feel the fire going through my veins
Feels like my heart going up in flames
I keep hold it on
I keep hold it on for you

And every time when we touch
I need it so much
I need your touch
I'm not scare baby
I'm not scare

Baby, I'm not scare
I'm not scare
