

Terminal Choice, Injustice

we are living in a world of hate and fear is this really our destiny? is there nothing we can do to prevent the ultimate end of time in every human being exists the seed of evil and every day some of them try to keep it down

we have to fight against injustice
try to understand
it's not the way we want to live we want to resist
try to understand
we have to break the chains tonight this will be our chance there are always some human beings born to infiltrate

our wonderful life
spreading the seeds of evil they lead us in the wrong direction they want to gain the ultimate power
using us for their plans
