

Terminal Choice, Perverted Love

You say I'm the only one for you
So why are you trying to banish me?
You say I'm the only love for you
So why are you doing the things you do?
I can't stand it anymore
I have to go before I fasten down
I can't stand it anymore
There's nothing left to say

Do you really think I'm still in love with you?
Do you really feel a fire burning inside of you?
Do you really want to go on like this?
Don't you think, my dear, we better stop at this point?

You say I'm the only one for you
So why are you trying to banish me?
You say I'm the only love for you
So why are you doing the things you do?
I can't stand it anymore
I have to go before I fasten down
I can't stand it anymore

So please hide your tears from me
I can't see you cry
There's a reason to be afraid
We better leave ourselves alone
So please take your hands away
I don't want to be touched
The only thing I want to do
Is to fuck you for the last time

You say I'm the only one for you
So why are you trying to banish me?
You say I'm the only love for you
So why are you doing the things you do?
I can't stand it anymore
I have to go before I fasten down
I can't stand it anymore
