

Terra Naomi, Smile

on santa monica
there's a store that sells trees plants and more a big green forest on the pavement right next to the needle exchange the people walking by their paths may cross

but none know why
the streets are littered leaves and rubber
left from last night
now uncovered

and how can i be down
when smiling faces all around say
how can i be down
when smiling faces all around say
smile smile smile

the billboard shows her face a pretty girl all lines erased she's cynical and strange we'll never know just what's the case

why's she so skinny
is she flakey
did she wake up feeling shakey from a late night with musicians trying out some new positions

and how can i be down
when smiling faces all around say
how can i be down
when smiling faces all around say
smile smile smile
smile smile smile
smile smile smile...