

Terri Nunn, Let Me Be The One

Broken heart torn by your arrow
One by one, they wait in line for you
From the start I'm hoping you might
Tell me tonight

Let me be the one
The one you hold every night
The only one to remain in your eyes
Let me hear you say
I'm the only heart that you
Don't want to break

Open kiss
Waiting for an answer
That only you can give
Don't turn and walk away

Dreams won't lie
If you take me in your arms
And make it all right

Let me be the one
The one you're holding tonight
The only one to remain in your eyes
Let me hear you say
I'm the only heart you don't Want to break

Every time you touch me
You're taking a chance
There's nothing else that I'd rather do
The closer I get
To making you mine
The more I fall in love with you

Let me be the one
The one you hold every night
The only one to remain in your eyes
Let me hear you say
I'm the only heart that you
Don't want to break
