

Tesco Value, Along came a Spider ill you please for a little prayer for those that don't mind tell all the blind folks if they search, they will find

I hope you do
I hope you do
It's not because I'm foolish or naïve it's just feels good lying and trick and treat it surely does
it surely does
I sing this la, lala, lala... knock knock, please let us in it's cold out here, too cold to sin and I think I must go now but soon you will follow in this la, lala, lala...
Sing lala, lala
'couse words ain't worth your lullabies I hope you all die tomorrows news will just pass by...
