

Testament, Malpractice

We all will go and stay sometime
Soon to be a victim of a crime
Loss of blood and death is near
Take a number, can you you wait right here

Check in-to the place
Reduce your life into disgrace
Isn't there some kind
Of better way

When it's time to operate
Fatalistic figures hold on to your fate
Just relax you'll feel no pain
Hope they put you in the right domain

Patients helpless to defy
Negligence is why

Within the laws
They'll rip you off
Then write you off

Malpractice!
And in the end
They'll let you in
Please come again
Malpractice!

Suffer until you get well
Bleak existence like a prision cell
If you find your life is lost
Dedicate the world to pay the cost
Patients helpless defy
Negligence is why

Within the laws
They'll rip you off
Then write you off
Malpractice!
And in the end
They'll let you in
Please come again
Malpractice!
