

Tex Williams, You're Everywhere

(No you're not gone you're everywhere)
You're with me no matter what I do
Don't you see my eyes are so full of you
You think you're gone but I know better dear
No you're not gone you're everywhere
My ears are so full of your sweet words
Morning noon and night that's all I hear
You're arms are not around me but I don't care
Cause you're not gone you're everywhere
I feel so sorry for the one who's got you now
For the best part is still with me somehow
You think you're gone but I know better dear
No you're not gone you're everywhere
[steel]
I feel so sorry for the one...
