

Texas, After All

So we steal some time and short our hairs
With a life divine, I remember
Thinking nothing could fall far without reach
Secrets to be seen
All our games, our fantasies
Puts in their mouths
The words they been looking for

After all
I gave you something good
I taught you how to laugh and cry
Taught you how to say goodbye

And with all those lights I couldn't sleep
So you're the light, smiling faces
As rich as we were then
Since we used to do
I tell stories, do I? Do you?
We're still laughing
I guess now we're satisfied, let me try

After all
I gave you something good
I taught you how to laugh and cry
Taught you how to say goodbye
After all
I gave you something good
I taught you how to laugh and cry
Taught you how to say goodbye

Secrets to be seen
All our games, our fantasies
Puts in their mouths
The words they been looking for
Yes, they have

After all
I gave you something good
I taught you how to laugh and cry
Taught you how to say goodbye
After all
I gave you something good
I taught you how to laugh and cry
Taught you how to say goodbye