Texas, Is What I Do Wrong

No one can tell me what I do is wrong
You took me down when I proved to you that I am strong
You in my soul, no one to blame
I need no help because I don't feel ashamed
No one can tell me what I do is wrong

No one can tell me what I do is wrong
You took me down when I proved to you that I am strong
Walking with you my soul has gone free
You took me down, that's what you promised me
No one can tell me what I do is wrong

No one can tell me what I do is wrong
No one can tell me what I do is wrong
No one can tell me what I do is wrong
I know in my soul, I know I'm to blame
I need no help because I don't feel ashamed
No one can tell me, no one can tell me what I do is wrong
